The science of vapour management

For work and leisure

SPORTWOOL is a functional material providing extreme comfort, with natural material against the skin.

Advantages:

- A dryer and cooler microclimate between skin and clothing
- A product which does not have to touch the skin to be able to transport moisture
- Fast drying time and an ultra-effective transport of moisture
- No odours
- UV protection

"We believe that from the moment you first wear Sportwool you will notice the difference this fabric makes to your physical comfort during work or exercise."

The original

Sailor offers you the original sailor pullover without shoulder seams, as it was made in the old days to prevent the shoulder straps of the seamen's waders from chafing. The shoulder without seams is a special patented detail.
